

Licking County Tax Figures

Every voter in Licking county should read the tax figures that appear upon the editorial page of this edition. The official figures show that the tax rate has been reduced in 68 of the 78 taxing districts in this county. This average reduction in rate for the county is 69 cents on each $1,000 of taxable property -- a saving of $61.702 to the honest taxpayers of the county. The most gratifying result in this year's assessment, however, is the increase of $2,991,986 in intangible property (money, stocks, bonds, etc.) -- the taxes from which will defray the entire expense of the 1934 reappraisal and leave a surplus of over $4,000 to apply on next year's reappraisal. Under the Warner tax law a man pays his own tax and not his own plus that of the other fellow. Read the tax figures upon the editorial page today and see how this new law works in Licking county.

R. L. Patton For Sheriff

One of the most important county offices to be filled at the election in November is that of sheriff. The man elected to such position must not only have dauntless courage but he must also have a keen perception of human nature, must be a student of character and ready at a moment's notice to cope with any situation or exigency that might arise while serving as such official.

The man who fills every one of these requirements is Roy L. Patton. Mr. Patton has enjoyed the fullest extent of the confidence of the companies which he represents as well as that of his patrons. He has been called upon to adjust hundreds of claims, both large and small, and his adjustments have always given satisfaction both to insurers and insured. In his line of business he has traveled extensively over the county and is probably one of the best known citizens of the county, his business bringing him in contact with residents of nearly every community. He has never held a public office unless that of school director could be called such, and while serving in that capacity was a tireless worker in the cause of education.

The voters of Licking county can rest assured that Roy L. Patton will serve them well. He is a man of unblemished reputation and his character is above reproach. He would add dignity to the office and so administer its affairs that the tax payers of the county would benefit thereby. A vote for R. L. Patton for sheriff is a vote in the interest of every citizen in the county irrespective of party affiliation.

THE TAX RATE IN NEWARK

"Every tax payer should keep this point in mind: An increase in the valuation of property will not result in a corresponding decrease in taxes paid, even though the rate is decreased." Newark American Tribune, Oct. 12.

Very true, but if the increase in the duplicate comes, largely, from intangible personal property, owned by the tax-dodging element of society, and the city's real estate has not been increased—neither its homes, factories, nor business houses, if its citizens do not pay less taxes, it is because of the unprecedented demands for large sums of money by the city administration—the tax-payers of the city; and while the Newark city government's demands for a large increase in excess of last year's levy, and while Messrs. Christian and Bigbee were the majority members of the budget commission, they are also members of the present city administration and insisted on a levy of not less than 13 mills in order to meet, as they said, the requirements of the various departments of the city government.

Surely, the American Tribune does not place such a low estimate on the intelligence of the taxpayers of Newark, as to presume that it is up to the state that reduced its levy .511 mills, and the county whose fund was reduced .25 mills, compelling the most rigid economy by the county government for the current year, and the appointive assessors who furnished an increased duplicate of $1,311,820, to explain their actions to the taxpayers of Newark, when there was not a reduction in a single fund of the city, but an increase in all of them. This ought to be clear to anyone.

John C. Swartz is an experienced and capable engineer. He is the son of Judge John M. Swartz and is the Democratic candidate for county surveyor. Vote for John C. Swartz.

Official Figures Showing Reduction in Tax Rate For 1914 in Licking Co.

There has been a great deal of discussion of the Warnes law and its effect in Licking county. Opponents of the measure including the Republican press have contended that the new tax law was not framed in the interest of the people and that as a matter of fact it meant an increased tax burden for the people. The best answer to these assertions is the tax rate itself. The official figures—showing what the people paid in every township of the county last year, and what they will pay this year. Here are the official figures. Read them yourself. Pick out your own township and you can very quickly see whether you will pay "more taxes" this year than last.

It will be seen from the above tax table that the tax rate has been reduced in 68 taxing districts out of 78 in Licking county. The average reduction in the tax rate for the county is 7.8 per cent or $0.69 on each $1,000 of the taxable property of the county, and thereby saving the honest taxpayers of this county who have heretofore returned their property at its true value in money, the sum of $61,792.

These figures certainly justify the claims made by the friends of the Warnes law when it was first enacted, that it would bring to light the hidden intangible personal property and thereby result in an enormous increase in the tax duplicate of every county in the state. Their predictions are now verified facts and the grand duplicate of the state has been increased over one billion dollars, and to give the people the benefit of this vast increased duplicate the legislature, in extra session, reduced the state levy .511 mills, and the budget commission of Licking county were enabled in the taxing districts to still further reduce the tax rates by reason of the increase of $2,973,870 in Licking county's tax duplicate. In the few taxing districts of the county where the tax rates were increased or remained the same as last year, they made great-

Willis, 26 Broadway.
Reading from the Congressional Record of the infamous Archibald letters to Senator Foraker and Dick, Governor Cox at Lancaster showed that Frank B. Willis, while in the Ohio legislature, had taken his orders from Standard Oil through John D. Archibold, 26 Broadway, in case terms the Governor said "Senator Hanna heard from Mr. Archibold and Mr. Willis heard from Hanna."

The connection is shown in the offering of a resolution for trust investigation by Mr. Willis on January 16, 1906. On January 19 Archibold wrote to Hanna to "attend to it." On January 25 the resolution was snuffed out on the motion of its author, Frank B. Willis. In the correspondence between Arch-

WHAT THE WAR TEACHES US

William A. Ashbrook.

Mr. Ernest Cornell, secretary to Congressman William Ashbrook, has compiled a little booklet giving a brief biography of Mr. Ashbrook and containing more than 200 personal endorsements from the soldiers of the Seventeenth Congressional district. The pamphlet also contains splendid letters of endorsement from Oscar W. Underwood, Postmaster General Burleson, Secretary of Commerce Redfield, Speaker Clark, Col. John Clem and others.

The back cover of the booklet briefly recites the congressional record of Mr. Ashbrook who has stood firmly and consistently by the Woodrow Wilson administration, favoring good government, good citizenship and peace with the world. Mr. Ashbrook deserves the splendid support and re-election he is sure to receive on November 3.

Bryan Praises Cox.

There has never been a more successful political tour of the state than that of William Jennings Bryan last week. Everywhere he was greeted by large and enthusiastic crowds which forecast the triumphant re-election of Governor Cox and the endorsement of the policies of President Wilson. Giving the endorsement of the national administration to every candidate on the ticket with Governor Cox he made the following decisive statement concerning the Governor:

"I am proud of Governor Cox and his record. There is not another Governor in the nation who has made a more splendid record than he. He is becoming more and more a leader of the nation's Democracy. He has been courageous and untiring in his devotion to the interests of the people."

Fruit Raising.

Many fruit growers have felt some discouragement this fall, owing to the cutting off of markets by the war. Apple culture, in particular, is receiving a hard blow, for this year in wartime Europe is buying little food but grain. The decline in value of exported fruits affects sympathetically the market for all fruits.

Germany's Auto Strength.

Too little credit has undoubtedly been given to the automobile for its part in the effective operation of great armies, as illustrated by the sensational dash into France by the German army; and something of the automobile organization that kept supplies moving, and rushed reinforcements to the points where they were needed, is told in an interesting article in the special war number of the Scientific American of October 3rd, which contains the following facts:

In Germany, military motor trucks, complete with trailers, to the number of 1,150 were under subsidy on April 1st this year. In addition, the Empire had 14,700 commercial cars, capable of being converted into military vehicles. The order of mobilization placed at the disposal of the German general staff approximated 15,000 delivery cars, not counting the trailers. In addition, the German army comprised at the beginning of this year the following "special" vehicles: 50 completely equipped motor kitchens, 100 motor ambulances, 500 motor-driven cannon, and four powerful tractors, which have been especially useful in drawing the new 42 centimeter siege guns of the artillery. About 200 armored cars, fitted with Maxim guns; 15 searchlight cars and a number of aeroplane repair wagons make up the remainder.

The government has commandeered the majority of all the pleasure cars in the Empire, amounting to probably 60,000 vehicles, for use by officers at the front, and for rapid communication in the rear of the army. Whole regiments are reported to have been shifted under cover of night by means of big fleets of motor cars to points 60 and 100 miles distant. In addition, there are with the army more than ten thousand cyclists and motorcyclists.

The shortage of gasoline, which has been the subject of much comment in the American daily press during the past week, is of little importance, as all the military vehicles can be run with equal facility on benzol and denatured alcohol, both of which fuels are available in considerable quantity in Germany.

J. Howard Jones has "made good" as prosecuting attorney. He is a young man of energy, integrity and brains. The good service he has rendered entitles him to a second term as prosecutor.

Ben B. Jones, F. R. Dumm and J. H. Orr as county commissioners have made a record that deserves the people's endorsement. These three men are candidates for re-election on Nov. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elshorn of Prior avenue entertained at their guests at dinner Sunday Misses Rachel Bailey, Genevieve Kennedy and Cecil Crozier.

On Sunday morning the bans were published at St. Francis de Sales church for the approaching marriage of Miss Emily Wells to Mr. Lawrence Schaller. The wedding will take place this month in St. Francis de Sales church. The bride to be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wells of 32 Bowers avenue, while the groom resides in South Sixth street. He is employed as machine operator at the Gem theatre.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Ethel Dial, daughter of Mrs. Etta Dial of Chestnut street, to Mr. John Jones. The wedding will take place the latter part of this month. Mr. Jones resides in South Second street, and is an employee of the E. H. Everett company.

The members of the Harmonious club and their husbands enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. James Lothridge in the Sharon Valley road on Friday evening. The rain prevented the corn roast, as was intended, but nevertheless a delicious supper was served. The hours sped only too quickly when at a late hour the guests departed, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Lothridge for the pleasant time shown them. Besides the members and their husbands, were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. King, Miss Lillian Keller, Miss Bess King, Master Elsworth Davis and Frederic Brunner.

A crowd of young people enjoyed a moonlight ride to the home of Miss Edith Taverner, southeast of Jacksonville, Thursday evening. After enjoying a few games on the lawn, a dainty luncheon was served to the following guests: Misses Hazel Green, Jessie Simpson, Mary Rose, Josephine Hull, Sylvia Proctor, Nettie Campbell, Frances Brown, Marie McPeck, Vera Lane, Edith Cawmer and Jessie Aken, Messrs. Robert Hayes, Walter Rock, Raymond Hullam, Carl Radcliff, Ross Aplegate, William Cawmer, Ross Van Voorhis, Claude McPeck, Atle Beti, Harold Radcliff, Miss Charlotte Simpson and Mr. Joe Tell chaperoned.

Miss Anne Sprague, a bride-elect, and Miss Lucille Bradley of Duluth, Minn., were honor guests at luncheon at the Country Club given on Monday afternoon by Miss Louise Norpell. The luncheon table was prettily arranged with cosmos and the following were the guests: Miss Sprague, Miss Bradley, Mrs. Malcolm Baker, Mrs. Harry Baker, Mrs. Clarence Helsey, Mrs. Edward Kibler, Jr., Mrs. Donald Ferguson, Mrs. Harry Chilcote of Indianapolis, Miss Hazel Althoff, Miss Bertha Latimer, and Miss Bertha Fulton.

The Y. M. N. club was delightfully entertained on the regular day by Mrs. Alva Leak at her home in East Main street. The afternoon was given over to needlework, while the bean and picture contest afforded much amusement. The bean contest was won by Miss Veda Barrett while the picture contest was won by Mrs. Charles Miller. At 4:30 a dainty two course luncheon was served the following: Mesdames Charles Miller, Adam Hock, Dan Schock, Howard Horn, Misses Veda Barrett, Catherine Gruber. The members parted to meet with Mrs. Tom McLoughlin of Allen avenue.

The Euterpean Society gave a most entertaining play at Recital Hall on Friday evening. It was entitled: "Reception Day at the Settlement House." The stage was prettily decorated in the society colors of yellow and white, this being effected by the use of golden rod and dahlias. Miss Viola Johnson in her pleasingly characteristic way gave a little talk of welcome and a prologue, "Longfellow's Dream," was given with tableau and reading, and was compiled by Miss Alice Alice Elswald. The play was a one act swatch and the principal character, Mrs. Kelly, was admirably depicted by Miss Alice Elswald. Two musical numbers were given: a sextet, composed of Misses Florence Foster, Helen Moore, Lois Babb, Pauline Ireland, Alice Elswald and Laura Harris, singing "Ebb and Flow," by O. King, and Miss Dorothy Swartz sang "Indian Song," by Cadman.

Mrs. John Wilson of the Columbus road, is entertaining out-of-town guests.

Miss Emily Wells was the honor guest at a miscellaneous shower given on Monday evening by Miss Mary Prior at her home in South Sixth street. The honor guest received a number of beautiful gifts and the evening was so informally spent. A dainty luncheon was served to about forty guests.

PROSECUTOR JONES' POSITION. Prosecuting Attorney J. Howard Jones Tuesday afternoon issued the following statement, clear, concise and forceful:

"The Newark Natural Gas and Fuel company has a franchise to do business in the city of Newark until 1922, and as long as it continues to do business in the city it must continue under that franchise. I do not ask for a forfeiture of that franchise. I only ask the company to continue to fulfill its contract with this city. In 1913 the contract fixing the price of gas ran out. Under the statutes of Ohio the city council then had the right to fix the rate to be charged during the remaining time the franchise had to run, the only condition fixed by the statute being that the rate so fixed should be reasonable. The council accordingly met and fixed the rate. The gas company claimed the rate so fixed was not reasonable. Accordingly the rate case was tried in the common pleas court and Judge Jewell in a well rendered opinion, held that the rate fixed by the council was reasonable. The gas company then appealed the case to the court of appeals, and that court sustained Judge Jewell's decision, again holding that the rate fixed by the council was reasonable. Notwithstanding these two court decisions the gas company refuses to complete its contract, and refuses to abide by the courts' decisions. The only question left is whether or not the law laid down by the higher courts of our state is going to be obeyed by this recalcitrant corporation. We must determine whether together the city officials, the prosecuting attorney, the attorney general, the public utilities commission and if necessary the United States government have sufficient power to bring this company to time.

"I am well aware that some of us are able to pay 30, 40 or 50 cents for gas. As a luxury we would rather buy it at almost any price than be compelled to return to coal. But we must not forget that there are thousands of people in the city who cannot pay such prices. To them it would work a great hardship, and as citizens they are entitled to consideration.

"My policy therefore will be to use every effort to have this matter finally determined in a way advantageous to our citizens, and I expect to offer all the power of my office, aiding the city officials in any way I can until we effect a final disposition of the matter."

Horrible Dueling.
A particularly terrible kind of duel was fought on one occasion in Mexico. The opponents were an Indian settler and a rich cattle owner. The weapons chosen were butchers' knives, and it was settled that each combatant was to hold out his hand in turn to have one of his fingers cut off. The first to show the least sign of suffering pain was to have a bullet put through his heart by the other. The Indian had the first cut and amputated the cattle owner's first finger at a single blow. The Indian's first injury was the loss of a thumb, and he likewise remained as impassive as marble. This horrible drama went on until each combatant had lost four digits. Then the cattle owner's second became so frightened at the ghastly sight that he shot the Indian dead and ended the fight.

A Golfer's Discovery.
An enthusiastic golfer, one of those fellows who can speak on nothing else but golf, was one day taken by a friend to our local observatory to have a look through the building. The golfer's friend, who was a keen astronomer, got him a look at the moon through the telescope and then asked him what he thought of the planet. To his amazement he answered back, "It's a right, but it's awful fat o' bankers."—World of Golf.

The Courts

Hearing Will Cease.

On Tuesday, in common pleas court, the court and jury were engaged in the trial of the case of Ann M. Rowe, et al., vs. James G. Dunlap, et al., in which the plaintiffs ask that the will of the late Addison Patterson be set aside on the ground that he was not possessed of sufficient mental capacity to make a will. The hearing of the testimony will probably take until Thursday morning.

Suit Is Adjusted.

In the case of the Brooks Oil Co., vs. A. S. Stephen, a suit brought to recover upon an account, a judgment of settlement was entered, the parties adjusting the controversy without a trial.

Depositions Filled.

Depositions were filed with the clerk of court in the case of John W. Peck vs. Irene E. Miles (two cases, same title), and in the case of Horace Tharp vs. Irene S. Miles.

Divorce Granted.

Judge T. B. Fulton has granted the divorce petitioned for by Bessie Spicer against Emory Spicer on the grounds of willful absence for more than three years. She is also restored to her maiden name of Bessie Parr and awarded the custody of a minor child.

Drunk and Disorderly.

Two drunks were hauled into Justice Scott's court Monday morning and their hearing set for later in the day. They were also charged with being disorderly.

In common pleas court on Monday morning the court and a jury took the trial of the case of Ann M. Rowe, et al., vs. James G. Dunlap, et al. The suit is brought to set aside the last will and testament of Addison Patterson, who formerly lived in Bullock township, this county. Plaintiff's claim that at the time of signing the paper purporting to be his last will and testament he was not possessed of sufficient mental capacity to understand the nature of his act. A number of witnesses have been subpoenaed, and the submission of the testimony was not concluded at the time of adjournment on Monday.

In the cases of Reinhart vs. Baughman and Reinhart vs. Hoyt the argument of the real estate was confirmed, and the court directed that an order of sale be issued.

The Perfect Rose.

"Thou art like unto a flower," warbles the German poet to his love. A certain exasperated old German florist and nurseryman who flourished half a century ago in New York was accustomed to assert with equal positiveness that a flower is like a woman. He had many women customers whose trade he appreciated, but whose demands often drove him to rumple his untidy hair and brush of hair until he looked like an angry porcupine. He finally nicknamed himself to the husband of one of them, whose diary has preserved his words:

"I have so much trouble with the ladies when they come in to buy mine rose! They want him hardy, they want him double, they want him manly, they want him nice color, they want him everlasting in von rose. I hope I am not what you call one unbecoming man, but I have sometimes to say to that ladies: 'Madam, I never often see that ladies that was powerful, that was rich, that was cool tempered, that was young that was intelligent, that was disreputable, that was bawdiness in one ladies. I see her much not.'"

GARFORD HIT BAD WEATHER IN HIS TOUR

BUT GOOD SIZED CROWDS GREETED THE PROGRESSIVE SENATORIAL CANDIDATE.

Licking County Bull Moosers Also in Speech-Making Party—Newark Meeting Tonight.

The weather man in Licking county plays no favorites when it comes to dealing out the weather for the political meetings of the various parties. Governor Cox's trip through the county two weeks ago was carried out through the rain and the Bull Moosers' itinerary, Tuesday, received like treatment.

Despite this fact and the additional disappointment of getting the schedule started 30 minutes late, good sized crowds greeted the Progressive party's speakers at Jersey, Pataaskala, Etna, Kirkersville and Hebron. The largest crowd was at Pataaskala where fully 300 people had gathered.

Arthur L. Garford, candidate for United States senator on the Progressive ticket, and Frank W. Wood, candidate for secretary of state, were the candidates from outside of Licking county who made up a part of the party of speakers. A. S. Mitchell of Newark, candidate for representative to the general assembly, and E. S. Randolph, secretary of the county central committee, were the other speakers.

Mr. Garford, being a forceful speaker, presented the arguments of the Progressive party advantageously and his remarks were well received at each stopping place.

At Jersey the party was 30 minutes late, reaching that village at 9:30 o'clock. At Pataaskala, finding a good crowd, the speakers took advantage of the opportunity and added 15 minutes to the time allotted for this meeting. This brought them to Etna 45 minutes late, and a part of the crowd, growing weary of waiting, had departed.

At Granville, the meeting was started nearly an hour late. It was held in the town hall where a fair-sized crowd assembled.

LATE IN GRANVILLE BUT GOOD CROWD HEARD SPEAKERS.

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, Oct. 12.—When the party arrived at Granville, an apology was offered for the delay, it being explained that the rain and bad roads had delayed the tourists. The speakers found the house well filled with men and a sprinkling of women.

Mr. Garford told the audience that with the party leaders a campaign was started to present the Progressive side of the political campaign to every county in the state. The campaign was started September 15 and in the 28 days speakers had visited 50 counties and had addressed 200,000 voters.

He declared that the Progressive party was not dead, as had been claimed, that the party had not received fair treatment from the press. "I don't blame the newspapers," he said, "because in some places the newspapers can not support this party."

Mr. Garford declared that the issue of the present campaign had nothing to do with the policies of Governor Cox, President Wilson or Candidate Willis. He declared that the real issue was prohibition and woman suffrage. He quoted at length from statistics used by the dry speakers and wound up his address with a tribute to the women, saying that when the women were given the right to vote, they would enter the voting places with the best interests of their home and their children foremost in their minds.

Following Mr. Garford's address, Mr. Mitchell made a brief speech, urging the election of Willis who would enforce laws upon the statute books.

ENTHUSIASM OF REPUBLICANS IS ON THE WANE IN OHIO

(Columbus Dispatch, Republican.)

JUDGING by outward indications, there has been a distinct recession in Republican enthusiasm, if it could be said there has been any Republican enthusiasm since the late platform convention. This is traceable to a variety of causes.

The temperance issue, of course, is most potent, and is not going at all to suit the leaders. The Anti-Saloon league leaders, in their efforts to line up the religious and temperance vote with the wet machines of the cities and the preying interests of the state, has not been a success. It is true that Wayne B. Wheeler and Purley Baker are still viciously shelling the woods, but their aim is bad, and their troops have deserted.

The real inside facts are that the churches are not following, the Republican leaders as "close up" as the wet delegations who dominated the Republican convention, expected. In parance, the dry leaders cannot deliver the goods.

Again, the returns from Malae have not been at all pleasing, and the whirlwind reception of Colonel Roosevelt in Illinois is taken as an indication that his advent into Ohio may have like consequences. Garfield and Garford, men of the highest character, on a platform demanding state-wide prohibition, are cutting wide swaths through the temperance districts. The Progressive party is doing the only straight fighting for temperance principles, and so favorable is the reception of its candidates that enthusiastic Progressives are heard here and there claiming that Garfield will come out of the contest with more votes than Willis. Undeniably, the temperance and moral drift is toward the Progressive party.

Another factor working along the same line is the growing recognition that President Wilson has been eternally right in his peace position, and constructively efficient in carrying out his program of legislation.

Again, Governor Cox is getting to the people, and when he has talked to them, misrepresentations that have been fostered against him are cleared away. Tax reductions in all districts have vindicated the Warren law, and the Republican publicity bureau cannot arouse much opposition on the ground that he did not deceive the people, but did just what they elected him to do.

Reports coming from strong Republican districts are that Governor Cox will receive a large Republican vote, especially in sections where good roads sentiment is strong. The idea is widespread that the Republican plank to turn the roads back to the eighty-eight county boards was in the interest of road machinery firms, and to appeal to county rings of contractors and politicians is widespread.

For many months it has been known in inside circles that the coal strike in eastern Ohio, fostered by Cleveland interests, would not be settled until after the election. Unprecedented and enthusiastic receptions accorded the governor in the mining districts in eastern Ohio indicate that the expected discontent has boomeranged. Shrewd observers believe the governor will carry the mining counties by a large majority.

Then again, Tod's friends are awfully sore, as they feel that the bosses turned him into the contest only to desert him at the last moment.

The Republican organization anticipated much assistance from the true, or as it has been dubbed, the "Glue" Democracy, but the exposure by Garfield of the sources of the money and influence bank of Grover and Whitacre has made their association with the Republican campaign more a millstone than a Zepplin. Both wings and center of the Willis-Garford machine are under pressure, and the expected temperance reinforcements are not coming up—in fact, are deserting to the Progressives. It may not be a rout, as yet, but it is very defensive fighting.

THE UNHAPPY WARRIOR.

I'm not a Happy Warrior; I don't find scrapping pleasant, and no one could be sorer when I find trouble present. I do not think it glorious on sporting steels to ride, and rant around uproariously, demanding someone's hide. I'm fond of peace and piety. I hope to spend my life, afar from mixups, riot, and foolish strife. I'd do my stunt laborious, and draw my humble wage, and those who think war glorious may find their swords and rage. I'd spend my lifetime happily, good friends with men and kings, alas, true neighbors, scrappily insist on mixing things. Because I treat them mildly they think I have no spunk; greet them so obligingly they lamb upon my trunk. They'd fain assault and batter me, because it's life, they say; they'd punch my head and scatter me to make a holiday. And then I sweat them mightily, and lace their hair and black their eyes so that they wish they were not there. War's garments are not wearable, while peace remains in sight; but, see this, I am terrible, if folks must have a fight! Some countries are like men, guess, they seem so meek and mild, until you prod them—then, I guess, you'll see them running wild!

Equal Suffrage

To pay a debt which he acknowledges owing ever since the constitutional convention Herbert Bigelow has taken the stump for the equal suffrage amendment. Always a suffragist, Mr. Bigelow bent his major energies as president of the constitutional convention toward securing the initiative and referendum. He urged a deaf ear for the time being to the claims of suffrage, although citing for it. When urged to do more he said, "When we get the initiative and referendum we can get woman suffrage by its aid. I will then be engaged at your service."

Mrs. Maud Park of Boston, one of the youngest and most brilliant of American suffrage leaders, is making Columbus her headquarters and will devote her talents as a speaker to central Ohio during the balance of the suffrage campaign.

Suffrage sentiments were cheered to the echo at a "wet" mass meeting held in Cleveland last week. The speaker was Max Hayes, a well known labor leader and editor of the Cleveland Citizen. Hayes expressed the belief that the wet element has made a serious mistake in antagonizing those who believe in political equality. He said that any platform or personal liberty which denied the right of political liberty was inconsistent.

WEAK SPOTS

IN ALLIES' LINE BEING BOUGHT AT VARIOUS POINTS BY GERMAN CAVALRY

Many Violent Engagements, Thus Far Have Resulted in German Repulses.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, Oct. 13.—The efforts of the Germans, who are fighting hard in an endeavor to effect a turning movement to the north of the long battle line in France, continue to hold the interest of the observers of the war. According to an official announcement, German cavalry some days ago had advanced in the west to as far as Cassel, 27 miles northwest of Lille. These German forces now however, are said to extend only to Sazebruck, five miles south of Cassel. If this should be true it is considered that it will make somewhat greater the difficulties of the Germans in bringing success to their efforts. This section of the war zone continues the scene of particularly violent actions, the opposing squadrons fighting desperately to gain the slightest advantage on which so much depends.

The Germans, at the same time are not lessening their attempts to find at other points on the battle line weak spots in the allies' front. All their efforts, it is said, are being met successfully by their French and English opponents.

The latest German flag captured by the French belonged to an active regiment, which was part of the corps stationed at Stettin. This fact according to the French, indicates that the Germans have concentrated on the French frontier, forces which ordinarily would be assigned to guard the Russian border.

Market Report.

From the very accurate market reports of The Boston Transcript we learn that "there has never been a time in the history of the women's wear trade in this country when the shortage of goods has been so acute as at present," and that "American dress goods manufacturers are facing a season that is destined to be the largest in their history." It is difficult to reconcile these statements with those circulated by G. O. P. organs regarding textile conditions in Kensington. Can it be that our Philadelphia mills are not getting their share of this prosperity, or are the weird stories of starving families in the mill district just good old-fashioned Republican lies? In view of the market reports from Boston, the centre of the American woolen industry, the latter theory seems to be by far the more plausible of the two.—Philadelphia Record.

GERMANS

NOW OCCUPY ALL TERRITORY IN POLAND EXCEPT WARSAW IN THE REPORT.

Issued Officially From Berlin—Russians Expelled From Prussia and in Fight.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, Oct. 13.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent sends the following German official communication concerning events in the eastern theatre of the war:

"After their expulsion from east Prussia the Russian armies were pursued across the frontier. The center of the German military operations is now Poland. The whole of Poland, west of the Vistula, is now in German possession, the Russians occupying only Warsaw.

"The few kilometers lost by the Germans in Russian territory near the east Prussian frontier, were of little importance, as it was never intended definitely to occupy or govern Suwalki.

"It is not true that the siege of Ostrowetz has been abandoned, as the fortress has never been besieged.

"During our retreat to the east Prussian frontier our troops nowhere were defeated, but on the contrary repulsed any attacks of the Russians."

HOW TO BANISH WRINKLES QUICKLY.

If the average woman only knew it, it is not at all difficult to preserve the youthful contour and velvety smoothness of complexion. Every woman hates to see her face wrinkled or baggy, and practically every one has experimented with some sort of patent remedy in the effort to remove such condition or ward it off. As a matter of fact, the most effective remedy in the world is one that any woman can easily make up for herself at home, in a moment's time. Let her take one ounce of pure powdered soraxole, which she can purchase at any drug store, and dissolve it in a half pint of witch hazel. Apply this harmless and refreshing solution to the face every day. The results are surprising and instantaneous. Even after the very first application a marked improvement is apparent. The wrinkles are less in evidence and the face has a comfortable snug feeling of firmness that is most delightful. Advertisement.

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. HODGDON, ME.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Me.

2. CHARLOTTE, N. C.—"I was in bad health for two years, with pains in both sides and was very nervous. I had a growth which the doctor said was a tumor, and I never would get well unless I had an operation. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I gladly say that I am now enjoying fine health."—Mrs. ROSA SIMS, 16 Winona St., Charlotte, N. C.

3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—Mrs. ADA WILT, 196 Stock St., Hanover, Pa.

4. DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2300 Blk. East William Street, Decatur, Ill.

5. CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years my side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 7305 Madison Ave., Cleveland, O.

AUTO TRUCKS IN CLEVELAND LIKELY FOR FRENCH ARMY
 (Associated Press Telegram)
 Cleveland, Oct. 12.—A steady stream of heavy automobile trucks, painted a dark gray, and equipped with hooped tops, over which canvas will be spread, left an automobile factory here today, headed quietly down side streets and onto country roads. Inquiry brought the first information that a local automobile factory is working night and day to fill an order for six hundred two-ton trucks to be delivered to the French government for use in the European war. It is planned to deliver the trucks to the French government officials in New York about November 1.

Several French officials accompanied the big trucks in their test trips over country roads today.

Old rails, erected in pairs, are used by a Brazilian railroad for telegraph poles in a region where insects destroy wood rapidly.

 sian railways which are incomparably poorer than what they have been accustomed to. The Russians are described as keen to engage the enemy in a country of their own choosing and near the base of their supplies.

The Germans are said to be still retreating in the direction of East Prussia and in Petrograd there is a report of a Russian victory near Iczki, midway between Augustowo and Suwalki which resulted in the capture of several batteries sent from Koenigsberg.

Berlin declares that all of the western part of Russian Poland is now in the possession of Germany and that every place west of the Vistula with the exception of Warsaw, is in their hands.

It would appear to be a fact that no heavy engagements yet have been fought in this region, most of the fighting being between screens of cavalry.

Should the Austro-German forces suffer defeat along the battle front now forming the way would be open, it is argued in London, for the invasion of Silesia, which next to the Rhine provinces is the richest district of Germany. But it is not anticipated even in the event of their victory that the Russians will advance with any great speed. The topography of the country and the lack of transports precludes the possibility of anything like the German sweep through Belgium.

Russia has suffered her most severe marine loss of the war in the sinking of the cruiser Pallada, which has been torpedoed by a German submarine in the Baltic.

In every theatre of the war Germany evidently is resuming the offensive with unparalleled vigor, and British naval observers are inclined to expect some co-operative display of activity by the German fleet.

Along the battle line of the Aisne, the very brief communication given out in Paris declares that what little change there has been in the situation favors the allies.

The chief alteration in this line, however, seems to be its disposition to stretch toward the shores of the channel.

A most interesting bit of news from the western front is found in the reports from various sources that several of the forts around Antwerp are still occupied by the defenders. If this is true, it is argued here that possibly the expected reinforcements for the German right wing may not be sent forward in time.

Reports also continue to reach London that the great activity of the German cavalry near Liege is a screening movement to cover the retreat of the army of General von Kluck. Such a retreat is said even to be under way to the north and to the northeast.

The rebellion of a section of the Dutch element in South Africa, which broke out today with a suddenness of a bolt from the blue, is the first warning note that has marred the harmony in the British empire since the outbreak of the war and it has momentarily diverted attention from the arenas near the heart of the empire.

That this rising was real and dangerous was sufficiently proved by official dispatches from Governor General Buxton to the Imperial government and by the drastic step General Louis Botha and his colleagues have taken to stamp it out by the imposition of martial law in the whole union of South Africa.

It apparently is the belief of General Botha's government that others besides those under the immediate command of Colonel Maritz may have been affected, hence the inclusion of the whole dominion in the order established martial law.

Germanizing factors are said by British authorities to have been at work for years in the frontier districts and to have even percolated into southwestern Transvaal, and other Dutch districts. Telegrams from Cape Town declare, however, that a majority of the Dutch remain absolutely loyal and this seems to be shown by resolutions drawn up at an emergency meeting of the South African party summoned immediately after the news of the rebellion had leaked out. The meeting which was composed entirely of Dutch-speaking Africans, condemned the conduct of Colonel Maritz in the strongest terms. A telegram was dispatched to Premier Botha unsolicited offering the services of the Cape Dutch in any capacity desired.

The Dutch paper, Onstand, published at Cape Town, indignantly denounces what it terms the treachery of Colonel Maritz and calls on the Dutch throughout South Africa loyally to stand at the back of the government. The union government's action is bound to bring matters to a head and to disclose the true attitude of the Dutch element which, it is contended, is overwhelmingly loyal to the British empire.

That dispositions are being made by both the Germans and the French and British allies for a big battle between Lens and Cassel, on the western wings of the opposing hosts is deduced here from the fragmentary information disseminated by the intelligence departments of the belligerent powers.

But, some of the other professional drivers don't think so. Gray, one of the Buick drivers, said he thought he could beat the big Knox. Gray said today: "I can start out faster than the Knox, and that counts a whole lot, as every car that takes the turn throws up bushes of dirt, so much for the front."

This car was formerly the one owned by Harry Endicott and has a large number of wins to its credit against the best foreign and American cars. Doc Beatty, the racing expert, will be its driver. Of a Colonel and His Command and Who Joined Forces with the Germans.

(Associated Press Telegram)
 Cape Town Union of South Africa, Oct. 12.—Via London.—It has been officially announced here that a command under Colonel Maritz has rebelled in the northwest of the Cape provinces.

Martial law has been proclaimed throughout the union.

The proclamation imposing martial law follows:

"Whereas, a state of war exists between the British empire on the one hand and the German empire on the other, and whereas the government of the protectorate of German southwest Africa has brought a wide-spread secret propaganda persistently endeavoring to seduce citizens of the union, officers and members of the defense forces of the union, from their allegiance, and to cause rebellion and civil war within the union and whereas, these efforts have so far succeeded that Lieutenant Colonel Coloman Gerhardus Maritz, together with a number of his officers and a portion of the forces under his command have shamefully and traitorously gone over to the enemy and are now in open rebellion against the government and the people of the union, and in conjunction with forces of the enemy, invading the northern portion of the Cape provinces, and

"Whereas, there is grave reason to think that the government of German southwest Africa has through its numerous spies and agents communicated with and corrupted also other citizens of the Union under false and treacherous pretext of favoring the establishment of a republic in South Africa, and

"Whereas the government of the union considers it necessary to take effective measures to protect and defend the interests of the union and its loyal and law abiding citizens against these insidious and treacherous attacks from within and without and to that end to declare martial law."

Continuing the proclamation declares that the whole union of South Africa is under martial law as understood and administered in time of war dating as from today.

The proclamation is signed by Lord Buxton, governor general of the union and countersigned by Gen. Smuts, minister of defense.

IT BANISHES THE SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Nerv-Worth Wonderfully Successful in Quieting the Nerves.

Sleeplessness is one of the most common symptoms of nervous debility. The Nerv-Worth specialists everywhere have noted this in talking with those who inquire about that wonderful new remedy and the written endorsements of Nerv-Worth almost invariably state the fact that failure to sleep had been one of the chief elements in their writers' ill health.

In the fact that Nerv-Worth wonderfully restores deep and restful sleep lies one of its chief reasons for the eagerness of its beneficiaries to tell fellow-sufferers about the remedy's merit. What had sleeper is there that wants to keep to himself the name and virtues of a medicine which takes him through the night as nature would have it done and ushers in the morning with new strength and vigor?

And the best of it is that Nerv-Worth brings sleep by virtue of ingredients which do the system no harm whatsoever. It contains no narcotics, no opiates, no bromides or other habit-forming drugs. It is a vegetable mixture which soothes and quiets the nervous system and lays foundations for sleep at night and comfort by day.

Ask Mr. T. J. Evans about it. Visit his drug store. He has watched the effects of Nerv-Worth for weeks. He will give you a free sample dose. He will guarantee the medicine.

RECRUITS

IN BRITISH SERVICE MORE NUMEROUS WHEN CASUALTIES WERE REPORTED GREATEST.

Average Remained About the Same When News From Front Was Quiet.

(Associated Press Correspondence.) London, Sept. 25.—At the headquarters of the London recruiting office the authorities have compiled a chart which throws an interesting light on the psychology of recruiting. It covers a period between August 11 and September 7, when 51,091 men enlisted in London. It shows how recruiting remained at a daily average of 1200 while the news from the front was not disquieting; how it rose when the news was not so satisfactory, and how it went up with a rush when heavy casualties were announced.

On Monday, August 21, the news was "German advances all along the line." There were 1481 recruits. On Tuesday there was a further advance and the recruits went up to 1547. On Wednesday, when it was announced there were 2000 casualties at Mons, the figures rose to 1561. On Thursday, with report of the further retirement of the British troops, 2000 recruits were added to the roll.

By Saturday the 29th, when the news was "British fight against tremendous odds," the total was raised to 2003 for the day, and even on Sunday, usually a slack day, 1250 men enlisted. But the following Monday, August 31, when the headlines read: "Casualties 5000," and photographs of the first British wounded were printed, recruits responded with a challenging rush and 4001 men enlisted. On Tuesday there was only a slight drop to 3479. On Wednesday the first list of casualties roused another challenge and a fresh record of 4135 was made. On the morning of Monday, September 7, there appeared the news of 15,000 British casualties, and the striking of the Pathfinders, London replied by making still another record of nearly 5000 men.

Now that the war office has had a chance to deal with the first 500,000 recruits for the new army it is anticipated that before long the standard will be put back to the old level. At the London recruiting headquarters the names and addresses are being taken of thousands of men just under 5 feet 6 inches, and they are being told to settle down for a few weeks and wait until they receive a telegram.

An official said it was not that the army did not want the 5 feet 3-inch man, but recruiting had to be damped down somehow to give the war office a chance to deal with the men, and it was decided that the simplest way was to raise the standard. It will soon be down again.

The daily average of recruits is still falling. It is about 5000 for the whole country, but there is some anxiety at the London headquarters. One officer asserted that he could raise half a million men in London alone.

AUSTRIA REPORTS SUCCESS OF ARMY AGAINST RUSSIANS

(Associated Press Telegram.) The Hague via London, Oct. 13.—The Austrian legation here has issued the following official communication:

"The rapid advance of the Austro-Hungarian troops along the river San in the direction of the Danube withdrawal of the Russian investing force from Przemyśl, Galicia, which was immediately occupied by Austrian relief troops.

"The retreating Russians everywhere were strongly attacked. An attempt on their part to cross the river near Sienawa and Lezajsk gave the Austro-Hungarian troops an opportunity to take a large number of prisoners. These as yet have not been counted.

Coffee Causes Stomach Trouble and Old Age

Physician Says it Interferes with Digestion and Hastens Death by Hardening Arteries.

Among other physiological effects of coffee drinking it is found that this beverage with its drug, caffeine, is one of the causes of premature old age, according to Dr. J. H. Kellogg, of the Battle Creek Sanitarium. He says:

"The evil effects of coffee on all persons of whatever age may be briefly summed up as follows: "First, the tannic acid in coffee interferes with digestion.

"Second, the caffeine of coffee is a nerve poison.

"Third the effects produced are similar to those of alcohol. When long used, the result is damage to the poison destroying glands, particularly the thyroid gland, liver and the kidneys, as a result hardening of the arteries, and premature old age. All medical authorities forbid the use of caffeine or coffee to persons whose arteries are hardened or who have high blood pressure. This condition is always present in elderly people.

"Coffee is particularly bad for young children, because the thyroid glands are not yet well developed. Any intelligent parent would not permit a child to use coffee."

NOTE—Among invalids and those recovering from disease and surgical operation coffee drinking is almost invariably forbidden. On the contrary the pure food drink INSTANT POSTUM finds extensive use in hospitals and sanitariums the country over. This delicious beverage is taking the place of coffee in thousands of American homes where health is valued. "There's a Reason."

FATE

OF TWO CENT FARES RESTS UPON THE DECISION OF U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Arguments Heard in West Virginia Case, But Effects Will Be Far-Reaching.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Washington, Oct. 13.—The fate of scores of innocent passenger fares rests upon the outcome of arguments today before the supreme court over the validity of the West Virginia passenger rate law.

One of the points at issue is whether a state may compel railroads to carry passengers at a non-representative rate, allowing them to make up their losses by increased charges on freight business. Technically only the rates on the Norfolk & Western railway are concerned, but the decision is expected to fix a standard for adjusting passenger and freight rates to one another throughout the country.

The argument of the rate cases was the first scheduled for the term. Before it was taken up dozens of motions were made in other cases on the docket.
